

Vulnerable

A Conference on the Issues of Gender, Race, Poverty, & Human Trafficking

On Saturday, January 28, from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM, South Main in cooperation with Christ Church Cathedral, St. Paul's Methodist, The Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, Christians for Biblical Equality, and in association with United Against Human Trafficking, and In Our Backyard will host a series of dynamic speakers presenting a series of crucial topics such as gender, race, poverty, and human trafficking.

Registration can be completed at smbc.org/vulnerable. The cost is $10 and includes breakfast and lunch.

Following the conference, at 1:00 PM, In Our Backyard, a nationally recognized anti-human trafficking non-profit, will provide an Anti-Trafficking Outreach opportunity for those who wish to participate.
